Engineering and Empire: The Aztecs
The Aztec civilization rivaled in its sophistication. Aqueducts, Pyramids, and stood as tribute to the gods.
2. Instead of getting married, what happened to the princess?
3. Peter Weller - Aztec sacrifices were important because without them they believed "the sun would refuse to and the universe"
4. The Aztecs were chased to a swampy island is Lake That large valley is now the site of the modern day
5. Aztec King Tenoch had a vision and saw an "eagle perched on a" and declared this to be the site of their capital city of Tenochtitlan.
6. Tenochtitlan is modeled after a city 25 miles to the north called Teotihuacan. It means "" The original founders believed the city was the pirthplace of the sun and constructed this to honor it -
7. How did the Aztec leader Acampapichtl (1376 AD) engineer a solution to the swampy land? (How did they build a base?)
8. Describe a causeway. (What is it? How was it built?)
9. All human labor was used to build everything in the city. One large stone took men to move it.
10. What did the mainland Tepanex tribe control that the Aztec very much needed and a war would start over?
11. With the help of Nezahualcylotl (leader of the Texcoco tribe) the Aztec wipe out the Tepanex. The leader of the Aztecs did what with the defeated king's heart? (Signaled the beginning of the Aztec Empire.)
12. How many tubes did the aqueduct have? How far did it run?

13. How many times a day did the king bathe?

Name-___

15. Nezahualcoyotl designed the engineering solution to the problem of flooding in the 5 lakes. How long was the dike? miles. How tall? ft. Wide? le. What are "sluice" gates with the dike? 17. Describe a "chinampas" or floating island. 18. King Ahuitzotl (1486-1502) ruled during the "Golden Age" of the Aztecs. He constructed "superhighways" and had runners pass messages from one end of the empire to the other. A message could travel miles in just hours. 19. The massive temple built by Ahuitzotl honored two gods, the god of and the god of How many people were sacrificed to honor them? equal to the god of and the god of How many people live in the Aztec Empire? million. 20. It's 1502 and the rule of Montezuma II starts. How big is the Empire? million. 21. In 1519, Cortez sailed from Cuba to Mexico with 11 boats and 500 men. What did the Mexicans call the boats? and advisor. 22. If a tribe resisted they were slaughtered. Cortez ended up marrying a chieftains daughter who became his and advisor. 23. Montezuma II invited Cortez to the Great Palace. What happened a week after the Spanish were in Tenochtitlan? 24. In 1520, after interrupting a sacred sacrifice, Cortez and his group planned to leave. What does "Noche Triste" 25. Cortez came back with a vengeance to wipe out Tenochtitlan. In May of 1521, horought 600 Spaniards, cavalry, and Indian allies to attack. After defeated by war, disease was the real killer of the native population. How many people died of disease? million, and the population was reduced		Nontezuma I expanded the borders of the empire. By 1449 it contained people.
17. Describe a "chinampas" or floating island. 18. King Ahuitzotl (1486-1502) ruled during the "Golden Age" of the Aztecs. He constructed "superhighways" and had runners pass messages from one end of the empire to the other. A message could travel miles in just hours. 19. The massive temple built by Ahuitzotl honored two gods, the god of and the god of How many people were sacrificed to honor them? square miles. How many people live in the Aztec Empire? million 20. It's 1502 and the rule of Montezuma II starts. How big is the Empire? million 21. In 1519, Cortez sailed from Cuba to Mexico with 11 boats and 500 men. What did the Mexicans call the boats? 22. If a tribe resisted they were slaughtered. Cortez ended up marrying a chieftains daughter who became his and advisor. 23. Montezuma II invited Cortez to the Great Palace. What happened a week after the Spanish were in Tenochtitlan? 24. In 1520, after interrupting a sacred sacrifice, Cortez and his group planned to leave. What does "Noche Triste" 25. Cortez came back with a vengeance to wipe out Tenochtitlan. In May of 1521, hought 600 Spaniards, cavalry, and Indian allies to attack. After defeated by war, disease was the real killer of the native population. How
18. King Ahuitzotl (1486-1502) ruled during the "Golden Age" of the Aztecs. He constructed "superhighways" and had runners pass messages from one end of the empire to the other. A message could travel miles in just hours. 19. The massive temple built by Ahuitzotl honored two gods, the god of and the god of tho many people were sacrificed to honor them? 20. It's 1502 and the rule of Montezuma II starts. How big is the Empire? million 21. In 1519, Cortez sailed from Cuba to Mexico with 11 boats and 500 men. What did the Mexicans call the boats? and advisor. 22. If a tribe resisted they were slaughtered. Cortez ended up marrying a chieftains daughter who became his and advisor. 23. Montezuma II invited Cortez to the Great Palace. What happened a week after the Spanish were in Tenochtitlan? 24. In 1520, after interrupting a sacred sacrifice, Cortez and his group planned to leave. What does "Noche Triste" 25. Cortez came back with a vengeance to wipe out Tenochtitlan. In May of 1521, h brought 600 Spaniards, cavalry, and Indian allies to attack. After defeated by war, disease was the real killer of the native population. How	!6. W	Vhat are "sluice" gates with the dike?
constructed "superhighways" and had runners pass messages from one end of the empire to the other. A message could travel miles in just hours. 19. The massive temple built by Ahuitzotl honored two gods, the god of and the god of How many people were sacrificed to honor them? 20. It's 1502 and the rule of Montezuma II starts. How big is the Empire? million square miles. How many people live in the Aztec Empire? million. 21. In 1519, Cortez sailed from Cuba to Mexico with 11 boats and 500 men. What did the Mexicans call the boats? 22. If a tribe resisted they were slaughtered. Cortez ended up marrying a chieftains daughter who became his and advisor. 23. Montezuma II invited Cortez to the Great Palace. What happened a week after the Spanish were in Tenochtitlan? 24. In 1520, after interrupting a sacred sacrifice, Cortez and his group planned to leave. What does "Noche Triste" 25. Cortez came back with a vengeance to wipe out Tenochtitlan. In May of 1521, hought 600 Spaniards, cavalry, and Indian allies to attack. After defeated by war, disease was the real killer of the native population. How	17. D	Describe a "chinampas" or floating island.
the god of How many people were sacrificed to honor them?	const	ructed "superhighways" and had runners pass messages from one end of the square miles. How many people live in the Aztec Empire? million 21. In 1519, Cortez sailed from Cuba to Mexico with 11 boats and 500 men. What did the Mexicans call the boats? 22. If a tribe resisted they were slaughtered. Cortez ended up marrying a chieftains daughter who became his and advisor. 23. Montezuma II invited Cortez to the Great Palace. What happened a week after the Spanish were in Tenochtitlan? 24. In 1520, after interrupting a sacred sacrifice, Cortez and his group planned to leave. What does "Noche Triste" 25. Cortez came back with a vengeance to wipe out Tenochtitlan. In May of 1521, h brought 600 Spaniards, cavalry, and Indian allies to attack. After defeated by war, disease was the real killer of the native population. How did the Mexicans call the boats?
chieftains daughter who became his and advisor. 23. Montezuma II invited Cortez to the Great Palace. What happened a week after the Spanish were in Tenochtitlan? 24. In 1520, after interrupting a sacred sacrifice, Cortez and his group planned to leave. What does "Noche Triste" 25. Cortez came back with a vengeance to wipe out Tenochtitlan. In May of 1521, h brought 600 Spaniards, cavalry, and Indian allies to attack. After defeated by war, disease was the real killer of the native population. How after the Spanish were in Tenochtitlan? 24. In 1520, after interrupting a sacred sacrifice, Cortez and his group planned to leave. What does "Noche Triste" 25. Cortez came back with a vengeance to wipe out Tenochtitlan. In May of 1521, h brought 600 Spaniards, cavalry, and Indian allies to attack. After defeated by war, disease was the real killer of the native population. How leave. What does "Noche Triste" 25. Cortez came back with a vengeance to wipe out Tenochtitlan. In May of 1521, h brought 600 Spaniards, cavalry, and Indian allies to attack. After defeated by war, disease was the real killer of the native population. How		and the control of th brought 600 Spaniards, cavalry, and Indian allies to attack. After defeated by war, disease was the real killer of the native population. How broug Afte	ght 600 Spaniards, cavalry, and Indian allies to attack. r defeated by war, disease was the real killer of the native population. How